ELMWOOD PARK POLICE DEPARTMENT PATROL DIVISION

Both Sergeant Rieger and I assured [REDACTED] she would be able to pursue criminal charges against Ramirez if she wished to do so.

[REDACTED] expressed a concern about having to take the time to go to court. She told us she had "just wanted this to end" and wanted Ramirez to pay to have the window of her vehicle repaired.

Officer Ransom prepared a "Victim's refusal to Sign Complaint Form". [REDACTED] signed the form. I told her she could re-institute the complaint / charges at any time if she wished.

I told [REDACTED] I would attempt to make contact with Ramirez and I would call her back.

I then terminated my conversation with her and left the scene.

Officer Ransom (Evidence Technician) photographed the victim's vehicle.

I then relocated to the Public Safety Building at 0259 hours and made telephone contact with the Chief of Police. I gave him a summary of the facts.

I requested a copy of the telephone conversation between Desk Operator Butera and [REDACTED]. I will forward a copy to the Chief of Police when it becomes available.

See Sergeant Rieger's Investigative action report for additional related information.

At 0400 hours I attempted to make contact by telephone with the victim, with negative results. I left a message for her to contact me.

I took no other action at this time.
