

Continuation Report

ELMWOOD PARK POLICE DEPARTMENT

the residence.

Warren and LaPuma entered the open window.

Upon entering the open window, LaPuma said, "We just came back here to get my dad's speaker."

Both LaPuma and Warren were handcuffed, and advised they were under arrest for Criminal Trespass to Residence.

LaPuma and Warren were transported to EPPD.

A board-up service was called to the location to secure the rear basement door.

I called Invitation Homes and left a message advising them that two subjects had been found inside their rental home at 7735 W. Sunset Drive, and requested a representative call me at EPPD.

Since I was unable to make contact with anyone at Invitation Homes, I signed complaints, against LaPuma and Warren, on behalf of the company.

LaPuma was given a copy of the Criminal Trespass to Residence complaint, processed and released on bond (D1044148).

Warren was given a copy of the Criminal Trespass to Residence complaint, processed, and allowed to make phone calls to arrange bond. He was placed in cell A-1, to await the arrival of bond.

A handwritten signature in black ink, enclosed in a red rectangular box. The signature appears to be "Chris Pankey".
