Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear Mr. Monroe:

On December 30, 2015, the Village of Elmwood Park received your Illinois Freedom of Information Act (5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.) ("FOIA") request for "15-10125."

Enclosed please find the records responsive to your FOIA request. However, please be advised that certain information in the records responsive to your FOIA request has been determined to be exempt from disclosure under FOIA. Accordingly, such information has been redacted from the records being provided.

Section 7(1)(b) of FOIA provides that "private information" is exempt from disclosure. "Private information" is defined in FOIA as, "unique identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers, and personal email addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law or when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person." 5 ILCS 140/2(c-5). Consequently, certain unique identifiers, including a home or personal telephone number, and a home address, have been redacted from the records being provided.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA provides that, "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" is exempt from disclosure. Consequently, a birthdate and other personal information, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, including the race of an individual, have been redacted from the records being provided.

On 12/05/15, at 1442, hours, I was summoned to the Elmwood Park Police station for a report. Upon my arrival, I spoke with the complainant, [REDACTED], m [REDACTED], who told me the following in summary:

[REDACTED] said on 10/05/15, he received a notice from Experian credit bureau in regards to unpaid balances from an old T-Mobile account.
