D.A.R.E Car Show makes successful return to Elmwood Park
Event raises $1,000 for drug education

ELMWOOD PARK, IL - Local officials declared this weekend's vintage car show a huge success. The D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) show featured 85 classic automobiles and raised $1,000 in donations for the local D.A.R.E. program.

The show returned to Elmwood Park after a one-year hiatus and was held in conjunction with the Elmwood Park Farmers' Market.

"We are incredibly pleased with how the show turned out," Elmwood Park Village President Pete Silvestri said. "The cars were great, and parents and kids were able to have a lot of fun while helping to raise awareness about the dangers of drugs."

A raffle netted approximately $1,000 which will be used to fund D.A.R.E.'s three decade long mission of keeping kids off of drugs. A charitable donation from John Mori of Mori Milk will help, as well.

D.A.R.E. officers were also on hand to teach young attendees about good decision making skills and the dangers of drugs and alcohol and to help parents properly communicate with their children about this important topic.

Raffle donors included Elmcrest Banquets, First Security Bank, First Chicago Bank and Trust, The Printing Station, D&R Printing, The Car Wash, Jiffy Lube, Advanced Auto Parts, Larry's Auto, and Action Pool and Spa.
