On 11/03/19, at 0104 hours, I responded to a Burglary In Progress call at 7601 W. Fullerton Avenue (Capris Foods). Dispatch advised that the caller stated she saw two subjects enter the building.

I arrived at the location with Officer Hock and Commander Rieger, and immediately saw the glass on the front door of the store had been smashed and removed.

Rieger and I entered the store and found no one inside. I could see that one of the cash boxes for the cash register nearest the front door was missing, and there were visible drag marks on the tile floor which lead from the southwest corner of the store, to the broken front door. It was apparent that the offender(s) had also removed the ATM from the premise.

Rieger and I exited the store, and taped off the scene with crime scene tape.

Rieger called officer Lapenna to the location, to process the scene for evidence.

Officer Hock spoke to two subjects outside, who advised they had witnessed the incident: [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he had been driving eastbound on Fullerton Avenue, when he noticed a dark-colored SUV (possibly a Dodge Durango) parked in front of 7601 Fullerton Avenue, with the lights on and tailgate open. He passed the parked vehicle, and did not see anyone in or around the vehicle. He turned left onto northbound 76th Avenue, and stopped his vehicle at the northeast corner. He saw the SUV flee the area, traveling eastbound on Fullerton Avenue, at a high rate of speed. [REDACTED] said he did have a dash camera in his car, which he showed to Officer Hock. The video showed the SUV was a newer model Dodge Durango, but the license plate and occupants/suspects were not visible.

[REDACTED] stated he was driving eastbound on Fullerton Avenue when he saw three subjects, all dressed in dark clothing with hoods over their heads, exit the store and flee the area in a dark SUV. One appeared to be carrying an object that looked like a large "pipe." He was unable to give any additional descriptions, other that one subject was a male/black. After seeing the SUV flee the area, he pulled over and stopped in front of the store and called police.

I was approached by [REDACTED], who said she had called police to the location.

[REDACTED] said she was in her apartment [REDACTED]. She heard loud banging noises coming from outside. When she looked out her window, she saw a dark SUV or Minivan, parked in front of Capris Foods, with the "trunk" open. Two subjects, dressed in all dark clothing, entered the store through the front door. A third subject, possibly a male/black, in all dark clothing, was "walking back and forth" along the south sidewalk, near 76th Court, talking on a cell phone. [REDACTED] stepped away from her window, grabbed her phone, and called police. When she returned to the window, she no longer saw the subjects or the dark SUV/Minivan in front of the store.

Lapenna arrived at the location and processed the scene for evidence. No latent fingerprints were found.

The store owner, [REDACTED] arrived.

[REDACTED] walked through the store with Lapenna and I. He stated the ATM, the cash register box containing approximately $150, and 4 or 5 packs of cigarettes were missing. No other items appeared to have been removed or touched inside the store.

I asked [REDACTED] if the security camera system was operational and could be viewed.

[REDACTED] advised that the camera system had not been working for the past three days. No video footage of the burglary would be available.

I gave [REDACTED] the report number and advised him to contact the police if he discovered any additional items missing, or property left behind by the offenders.

The scene was released to [REDACTED] and all responding officers returned to patrol.

On 11/03/19, at 0106 hours, I processed the scene of a burglary at 7603 Fullerton Ave.

I captured 14 digital images of the scene to include: the north entry door to the building, the glass window pane belonging to the door, which was found to be broken out of the frame and left inside the business, damage to the floor of the business consistent with drag marks, the front counter area which appeared disturbed, an area of the counter where a register had been taken from, the shelving unit behind the counter from which several packs of cigarettes were taken, an area towards the south end of the store where an ATM had been taken from

I observed a cash register at the front counter which was undisturbed and still had money in it.

I dusted the window pane for latent prints to no avail.

I copied the digital images to a compact disc and entered it into evidence.

I copied the digital images to the "H" drive.
